REPORT OF THE Superintendent of Schools.

The School Board of Hill,

Gentlemen:

The schools have been in session for thirty-four weeks during the past district year, following much the same lines of work as last year, but doing it more effectively.

The success of any school system depends largely upon its teachers. Hill has been fortunate in again retaining the present teacher in the grammar grades. The records of her pupils at New Hampton and at Franklin show the thoroughness of her work. Miss Kennett was succeeded in September by Mrs. Jennie D. Blake of this town. A new spirit seems to have been awakened in the primary room and in consequence a very marked improvement in results is easily noted. At the Center under the direction of Miss Harper, much work in canning and preserving was done in the fall term. Classes in sewing have been held twice each week, and during the cold weather some warm article of food has been prepared for the noon-day meal, ingredients being furnished by the pupils. These lines of work were believed to be especially adapted to the pupils at that school, but they have not been carried on at the expense of the regular school work.

Owing to the impossibility of procuring workmen the school building at the Center has not been repaired as thoroughly as was planned by the school board, and as is intended shall be done at the earliest opportunity. Thus in one way or another do war conditions affect every hamlet. The building at the village is in excellent condition.

The records of the pupils from our schools now attending schools outside the town show a good standing; an examination into their failures showing a lack of persistency of effort rather than a lack of preparation. I fully believe that our boys and girls will compare most creditably in proficiency with those of other towns of equal size and valuation.

The attention is called to the passage of an act by the last

General Court: "The fiscal year of town and special school districts beginning February 16, 1917, shall end August 31, 1918, and thereafter the fiscal and the scholastic year shall end August 31, annually." Under the old law the scholastic year ended in July and the financial year ended February 15, and the obvious purpose of the new law is to have the school year and the financial year coincide.

Compliance with the law requires that the district shall appropriate sufficient money at its next annual meeting to meet all expenses from Feb. 1, 1918, to Sept. 1, 1919. While this would mean a larger appropriation this year it would not mean a greater cost in the end as the running expenses of the district could be met each year until Sept. 1, instead of Feb. 15, as under the old law.

In conclusion I desire to express to the teachers my appreciation of their persistent and successful efforts and to extend to the School Board my thanks for their support.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE A. KEITH, Superintendent of Schools.

WAR ACTIVITIES IN THE TOWN OF HILL.

The citizens of this town have not been backward in their response to the demands and exigencies of the country in the present crisis, either in contributions of men, money or personal service.

MEN.

First and foremost, of course, has been the contribution of men for the active service.

On the first call for volunteers and up to the time of the selective draft, fifteen of our brightest and best young men offered themselves voluntarily for the service. Five of these are now with the American Expeditionary Forces in France and one is in a training cantonment in this country.

The following is the personal and descriptive list:

HARRY A. CAIL, born in New Brunswick, Dec. 29, 1894, unmarried, not an American citizen, enlisted May 3, 1917, entered service July 25, 1917, now in France with A. E. F., 103d Infantry, Machine Gun Co., National Guard Army.

CLAYTON R. EATON, born in Concord, N. H., Jan. 15, 1898, unmarried, citizen, enlisted Apr. 19, 1917, entered service July 25, 1917, now in France with A. E. F., first class private, 103d Infantry, Supply Co., National Guard Army.

HAROLD C. JONES, born in Nova Scotia, Nov. 22, 1893, unmarried, not a citizen, enlisted Apr. 19, 1917, entered service July 25, 1917, now in France with A. E. F., 103d Infantry, Supply Co., National Guard Army.

EARL N. ROUNDS, born in Franklin, N. H., Aug. 20, 1905, unmarried, citizen, enlisted Apr. 19, 1917, not accepted because of physical disability, called under selective draft act (Oct. 25, 1917, entered service Dec. 21, 1917,) now at Fort Levett, private, Battery D. 54, Provisional Regiment, C. A. C.

FREEMAN R. TRUE, born in Orange, N. H., July 3, 1896, unmarried, citizen, enlisted Apr. 19, 1917, entered service July 25, 1917, now in France with A. E. F., first class private, 103d Infantry, Machine Gun Co., National Guard Army.

FRED CAIL, applied for enlistment June 5, 1917, not accepted on account of physical disability.

CHARLES E. CATLIN, enlisted May 28, 1917, entered service July 25, 1917, discharged on account of physical disability Aug. 17.

GEORGE SUMNER CATLIN, applied for enlistment May 1917, not accepted on account of physical disability.

EDWARD C. CROSBY, applied for enlistment July 1917, not accepted on account of physical disability, called under selective draft Feb. 5, 1918, passed physical examination, now awaiting orders.

IRVING C. SNOW, applied for enlistment in Officers' Training Camp, not accepted on account of physical disability.

Soon after the entrance of this country into the war the town was organized after the general plan throughout the state for the performance of its part in the various activities. Under direction of the state committee on Public Safety a local committee was constituted as follows: J. M. Shaw, Chairman, Maj. E. H. Catlin, Secretary, Rear Admiral Joseph B. Murdock, E. S. Little, F. R. Woodward, C. A. Blake, R. A. Pearsons. Sub committees have been appointed by this committee.

More than thirty thousand dollars have been subscribed for the first and second Liberty Loans, of which the Boy Scouts secured subscriptions for nine thousand two hundred dollars.

The local committee on Red Cross work report a local membership of 226, and additional contributions of $915.81. A public rally was held June 22d, with street parade and exercises in the hall. Another rally was held July 12, when the local organization was effected. The ladies have also organized for the production and manufacture of Red Cross relief material.

The Y. M. C. A. call for a fund in support of its work among the camps and cantonments met with a generous response in this town. The sum of $575 was raised for this purpose in a public rally, including some later additions. Generous contribution has also been made to the war work of the Salvation Army.

At the present writing a sale of War Savings and Thrift Stamps is in progress.

We have a Community Club which furnishes monthly demonstrations in Home economics and food conservation, and canning demonstrations attracted much attention in the earlier part of the season.

Literature from the National Committee on Public Information has been circulated by the Boy Scouts.

Harold C. Jones promoted to private mechanic.
